A sea turtle swimming in blue water

There are seven species of sea turtles. Each species has a shell for protection. Each species has strong flippers for swimming. Learn more about sea turtles.

Turtle Diet

This sea turtle is chasing a jellyfish. Some sea turtles also eat plants. They eat seaweed and algae.

A Long Journey

Sea turtles live in the water. But they lay eggs on land. Baby turtles hurry to the ocean when they hatch.

Sharp Eyes

Sea turtles have good eyesight. They can see in dark water. And they can see colors. Their eyesight helps them hunt.

Turtles in Trouble

There is trash in the ocean. That is a problem for turtles. See this bag? A turtle might think it is food.
